District One Conference April 23rd & 24th

see info on last page of this newsletter

from the President:

Wow! Daylight Savings Day is March 14, when we spring ahead one hour. It doesn't seem possible that it is only a few days away.

So this means, we, in District One, all have more daylight to complete our Mamie, Letha and Nina, Gaby, ASTRA and Newsletter award submissions, and Foundation Grant applications, which are due the next day.

Conference will be Virtual this year, so yes, that means, to each member it is FREE! I hope you all set aside this time - April 23-24, on your calendar to Learn, mingle and network with other District One members, as well as to celebrate the incoming Board. None other than our very own, Pam Lemieux will be installed as Governor. We all want to be there for her.

As weather cooperates and more and more members are getting vaccinated, we can look forward to soon being able to meet together physically, outside. In the meantime, there is much activity.

Many put their heads together to come up with an alternate version of A B C, which was a pre-recorded Book Reading that was delivered and viewed online by the students. Their Forever Books were delivered and distributed. Students and Teachers alike were ever so appreciative.

A small, but very excited group of members were able to return to the Ronald McDonald House. There they prepared and served up individual portions to hand to guests.

Book Blizzard books were delivered to the schools. Teachers were ecstatic about the gift.

Thank you,
Debbie

Altrusa is an international non-profit organization, making our communities better through leadership, partnership, and service.

This issue is dedicated to Martha Donahue

Martha was a devoted Aunt, Friend, Teacher and Volunteer. Martha passed away on February 12th and leaves behind a legacy of bringing Love of Reading and Literacy to everyone she met. A teaching career that spanned 53 years and an Altrusa since 1983, Martha's enthusiasm and energy was ever-present.

"Martha was such a wonderful and classy lady, and I shall miss her very much. May she rest in peace, she was well loved and appreciated by all her Altrusa Sisters."

"Martha was a hot ticket!! Never had to wonder what she thought. She was honest, direct and so dedicated...to her friends, to kids, to US."

"Martha left a footprint in our hearts and souls. She is testament to a giving life."

"To live in hearts we leave behind is not to die. Martha, you touched so many lives and we are all so much better for it."

"So many beautiful memories of a very special lady. I loved her directness! I always admired the way she taught. It was so obvious how much she cared about her kids and how important they were."

"Martha was indeed one of a kind, always ready to volunteer in whatever way she could to reach out to help others, especially to children, whom she loved and certainly encouraged and promoted the love ♥ of reading to them."

"...her generosity was boundless. She gave freely to her children, in a classroom or when tutoring, and also, to her friends. If she discovered you had a particular interest, before long she was gifting you books to share that interest."

"As a volunteer at Ocean Ave School she fell in love with the first graders there who were from such diverse backgrounds. Yes, she spoiled them and often was chastised because she gave them books, special pencils, and Heaven forbid, CA—!"

"We remember your smile, your encouraging words, your laugh. We celebrate your life with Shared memories on your behalf. Til time heals our ♥"

COVID-19 stepped in again...this time to interrupt our BOOK BLIZZARD for our older readers. We DID receive lots of books for middle school readers so...again, Altrusans brainstormed a solution. We decided to take our BOOK BLIZZARD on the road. Once bags were packed with 25 books, Nicki and Anita collected 3 bags each for Lincoln, King and Lyman Moore Middle Schools. Susan took 2 bags each for Mahoney and Memorial in south Portland. Westbrook was delighted with the 3 bags that Fran J delivered!! Debbie delivered 4 bags to Windham and Lake Region received 3 bags from Trish!

Once we decide to get books into the hands of kids, we DO IT!

A softly falling snow welcomed us back to the Ronald McDonald House on Tuesday, February 9th. It was a lovely, calm greeting. We were excited to be invited back as guest chefs and even more thrilled to learn that we were the FIRST group to cook since COVID interrupted the cooking for families. Ann Smith is the new chair of the SUE'S SUPPER committee and she did a fantastic job . She planned and executed a yummy dinner of pulled pork, mashed potatoes and green beans...with lots of butter. Nicki whipped up 2 batches of GF chocolate chip cookies that smelled like...HOME! COVID has necessitated making the meals as single serve....but that was easy to do . We met 3 families to talk to...they'd been there for 2 weeks; for 4 weeks and since January 7th. They were DELIGHTED by the smells of our meal...and the cookies. It was AWESOME!

Hello,

I just wanted to extend a huge thank you to your organization and Books A Million for bringing over 80 brand new, high-interest books to Westbrook Middle School this week!

To increase student interest in independent reading, I am going to award a book to students who my ELA teachers tell me are either strong readers already who love books or growing readers who are making gains, devoting time to that important activity. As you can imagine, the virus and the hybrid model of schooling this year has dramatically impacted our ability to provide a robust reading curriculum that places great books into students' hands. New books are always welcomed!

Thanks again,

Patty

Westbrook Middle School

Good Afternoon Ms. King and Altrusa,

My name is Celina Marden and I am one of the kindergarten teachers at Saccarappa School. I just wanted to extend a huge thank you to you and your whole organization for your incredible generosity! My kindergartners are absolutely delighted and thrilled to have received a beautiful book from you. In fact, we worked together as a class this week to create a thank you letter to you all. :) In the past I would have used interactive writing to create it (so that the students were writing on the easel pad along with me) but due to not being able to share the paper pad because of Covid, I physically wrote the letter and they came up with the content of it. Also, they practiced writing some kindergarten sight words during the lessons and I underlined the words so that you all could see which ones. :)

With your help, now all of my students have a beautiful new book to read and reread over February vacation while they are at home and I am sure they will be turning them into an "Old Favorite" to treasure forever. How wonderful! :)

Thank you so much for reading and for your time this afternoon Ms. King. I hope you have a wonderful night and thank you for all of your hard work and community service with Altrusa!

Most Appreciatively,
Celina

Our Thanks!

Other items addressed were the need for an Altrusan owned Zoom account, a donate button on Facebook, budget submissions for 2021-22, maintenance of the email address list of Friends of Altrusa, access and maintenance of our Google Drive Documents, our club's Website, March Program Meeting for which we are responsible, Altrusa Business Cards and our group email account.

ASTRA NEWS

Ability
Service Training
Responsibility

ASTRA completed their first hands-on service project on Wednesday, February 10th by delivering the 100+ 'Activity Bags' they created for 3rd graders to Stevens Brook Elementary School in Bridgton and Songo Locks School in Naples. (This was the same day they dropped off this year's 'ABC' books for the Kindergartners at those same schools.) Each colorful 'Activity Bag' contained age appropriate word searches, math puzzles, coloring pages, & seasonal crafts for the children to do at home on vacation the next week. Now ASTRA is preparing their entry to the "ASTRA Service Project" competition for District One and International.

NOTE: On page 26 of your current Altrusa Yearbook (the ASTRA page), the President of ASTRA for the 2020-2021 school year had not been determined at the time our yearbook went to press. You can now replace TBA with Cierra Grover.
